Grow Your Chess

Scope for Group Classes

If you prefer face to face in person classes (rather than online), that is fair enough and completely understandable! Different kids learn and thrive differently! If you can get a small group together (your child and say 3 or 4 keen friends) and you also have a space to hold lessons regularly - email me john@plantchesscoaching.com.au I'd be more than happy to oblige and offer the best prices/discounts on offer!!

🤖 Why is Hans Solo's best friend not great at chess? He's a Wookiee. 🤖

Super Coach

Every class will be conducted by Super Coach John-Stuart Plant, who perfected the art of the making chess as fun as possible for groups when he was up and coming, teaching 20+ school classes a week for a decade!!

🤖 Why did Darth Vader make his last chess move? He was forced. 🤖
